Founding and MLK Tribute:

Founded in 2008, the Atlanta Dream is named after Martin Luther King Jr.'s famous

"I Have a Dream" speech, honoring the city's deep civil rights legacy. The team quickly embraced Atlanta's spirit, rallying local support from its inception.

Early Struggles and Historic Loss Streak:

The Dream's inaugural season was a challenging one, ending with a 4–30 record and a WNBA-record 17-game losing streak. Despite these early struggles, the team's resilience and determination set a tone that would later bring success.

Angel McCoughtry Era: Drafted in 2009, McCoughtry became a franchise icon and led the Dream to three WNBA Finals appearances (2010, 2011, 2013). She remains the team's all-time leading scorer, known for her scoring ability and leadership on the court.
