Founded in 1996: The WNBA was established on April 24, 1996, by the NBA as the first professional women’s basketball league in the United States, with its inaugural season in 1997. This initiative came on the heels of the 1996 U.S. Women’s Olympic Team’s success, which showcased top talent and helped boost the sport’s popularity.

First and Most Successful Women’s Sports League:

WNBA is the longest-running women’s professional sports league in the U.S., and it remains a model for other women’s leagues globally, having completed over 25 seasons despite initial challenges in attendance and visibility.

The 2020 “Wubble” Season: During the COVID-19 pandemic, the WNBA held its entire 2020 season at the IMG Academy in Bradenton, Florida, creating a “wubble” (women’s bubble) environment.

Record-Breaking Viewership: The WNBA has seen a surge in viewership, with the 2023 and 2024 seasons setting all-time highs.
