Stanley Cup Drought: The Maple Leafs last won the Stanley Cup in 1967, and their championship drought is the longest in NHL history. Despite having one of the most passionate fanbases, the team has struggled to find playoff success in recent decades.

Tim Horton - Hockey Icon: Before becoming famous for his donut chain, Tim Horton was a star defenseman for the Leafs. Horton helped the team win four Stanley Cups in the 1960s and remains one of the most beloved players in Leafs history.
