Defending Champions: Minnesota enters the 2024-25 season as the defending champions, having won the PWHL's inaugural championship in 2024. They are led by an impressive roster of world-class talent, and their name symbolizes their dominance and icy cool under pressure.

Inspired by Nature: The Minnesota Frost's name reflects the cold, icy winters of Minnesota and its reputation as a hockey hotbed. The name also conjures images of speed and precision, much like frost forming intricate patterns, mimicking the fluid play style of the team.
