1977 NBA Championship: The Trail Blazers won their first and only NBA title in 1977, led by Hall of Fame center Bill Walton, who also won Finals MVP.

The Jail Blazers Era: In the early 2000s, the Blazers were known for their off-court controversies, leading to the "Jail Blazers" nickname, though they remained competitive on the court.

Rebuilding Phase: With Lillard being traded to Milwaukee in 2023, the Blazers have entered a rebuilding phase centered around young players like Scoot Henderson and Shaedon Sharpe.

Damian Lillard's Heroics: Lillard, drafted in 2012, is known for his clutch performances, including two series-winning buzzer-beaters in the playoffs. He is the franchise's all-time leading scorer.
