Originally the Orlando Miracle: The franchise began as the Orlando Miracle before relocating to Connecticut in 2003, becoming the first independently owned WNBA team under the Mohegan Tribe.

Mohegan Sun Arena: Located within the Mohegan Sun Casino complex, this venue provides a unique atmosphere and is one of the most fan-engaged arenas in the WNBA.

Fan Engagement and Tribal Ownership: Owned by the Mohegan Tribe, the Sun emphasizes cultural representation and community engagement, creating a strong local fan base.

Three WNBA Finals Appearances: The Sun have reached the Finals multiple times, most recently in 2019 and 2022, establishing themselves as consistent contenders despite not yet winning a title.

Defensive Identity: Under coaches like Curt Miller, the Sun developed a reputation as one of the league's most defensively focused teams.
