Early Franchise Success: Founded in 2000, the Storm quickly built a competitive franchise and went on to capture their first WNBA Championship in 2004. This success established them as a respected team in the league’s early years and solidified their commitment to growth in women’s sports.

Four-Time WNBA Champions: The Storm have won four WNBA Championships—2004, 2010, 2018, and 2020—placing them among the league’s most decorated franchises. Each championship showcased unique rosters and coaching strategies, underscoring their adaptability and resilience over the years.

Climate Pledge Arena: The Storm play their home games at Climate Pledge Arena, known for its eco-friendly initiatives and central location in Seattle.

Jewell Loyd’s Scoring Milestone: In the 2024 season, Loyd set a WNBA single-season scoring record with 939 points, securing her place as one of the league’s top scorers. Her scoring consistency has been instrumental to the Storm’s offense and will be to the team’s future.

Youth Development Programs: Through programs like “Jr. Storm” and “Hoops Academy,” the team engages with young athletes across Washington, fostering youth development in basketball and promoting sportsmanship, teamwork, and community involvement.
