Founded: The Charlotte Hornets were founded in 1988 as an NBA expansion team, bringing professional basketball to North Carolina for the first time.

Franchise Relocation: The original Hornets relocated to New Orleans in 2002, and Charlotte was awarded a new team in 2004, which briefly became the Bobcats before reclaiming the Hornets name in 2014.

Playoff Struggles: Despite being competitive, the Hornets have only made 10 playoff appearances and have never advanced past the second round.

Michael Jordan: Jordan, widely regarded as the greatest player in NBA history, became the majority owner of the Hornets in 2010.
