Stanley Cup Champions in 1989: The Flames won their first and only Stanley Cup in 1989, defeating the Montreal Canadiens in six games. That team, led by captain Lanny McDonald, Doug Gilmour, and goaltender Mike Vernon, remains one of the greatest in their history.

The "C of Red": Flames fans are known for the "C of Red" tradition, where the entire arena is filled with fans wearing red during home playoff games. The sight of the sea of red has become a hallmark of Flames home games at the Scotiabank Saddledome.
