Founded as the Utah Starzz: The Aces began as the Utah Starzz in 1997, one of the WNBA's eight original teams.

They later moved to San Antonio as the Silver Stars in 2003, where they stayed until 2018, when the franchise relocated to Las Vegas under the new ownership of MGM Resorts.

● A'ja Wilson's Franchise Face: Drafted first overall in 2018,

Wilson quickly became the cornerstone of the Aces. By 2024, she was a two-time league MVP, Defensive Player of the Year, and Finals MVP, making her one of the most decorated players in WNBA history.

Dedicated Practice Facility: In 2023, the Aces opened a 50,000-square-foot training facility in Henderson, Nevada. This was the first WNBA-only facility, signaling the franchise's commitment to player development and setting a new standard for the league.

ACES

Becky Hammon as Head Coach: In 2022, Hammon became the highest-paid WNBA coach when hired by the Aces. Known for her tactical expertise and NBA experience, she led the team to back-to-back titles in her first two seasons.

Record Season Ticket Sell-Out in 2024: The Aces became the first team in WNBA history to sell out their entire season's ticket inventory in 2024, highlighting their growing popularity and the city's embrace of professional women's basketball.
