The Move from Minnesota: The Stars were originally founded as the Minnesota North Stars in 1967, one of the NHL's first expansion teams. The franchise relocated to Dallas in 1993, becoming the Dallas Stars, and quickly established themselves as one of the top teams in the NHL.

The Winter Classic: The Stars hosted the 2020 Winter Classic at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, marking the first time the outdoor game was held in Texas. The event was a huge success, with over 85,000 fans in attendance to watch the Stars defeat the Nashville Predators.
